

Robert Frater

Biography

Robert Frater is Senior General Counsel with the Federal Prosecution Service in Ottawa. He was called to the bar in Ontario in 1986, and has been a member of both the N.W.T. and Nunavut bars in the past.

He practiced with the Department of Justice in Toronto until assuming the position of Supreme Court of Canada Criminal Appeals Coordinator in Ottawa in 1991. He has been counsel on numerous cases in the Supreme Court of Canada. He has written and lectured extensively on criminal law issues, and is co-author of Drug Offences in Canada, 3d ed.

Among his responsibilities is the writing and editing of the Federal Prosecution Service Deskbook, a policy manual available at:

<http://www.justice.gc.ca/en/dept/pub/fps/fpd/index.html> .